NO ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP.

Neither your sending an e-mail to us, nor your receipt of information from this website, creates an attorney-client relationship. An attorney-client relationship may be formed only after you sign an engagement letter and after we have confirmed that no conflict of interest exists.

ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGE; CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

We do want to hear from you by e-mail; however, unless you are already a client of ours and have completed the engagement letter process, no attorney-client privilege exists, and anything you e-mail to us will not be treated as privileged and confidential. Always exercise discretion before sending sensitive or confidential information by e-mail.
